That is very kind and sincerely means a lot to me.

It's not necessary though. I really see us as partners and I'm somebody you really don't have to spend time on. I respect you and what you are doing. I know that with your extreme competency, talents, qualifications and your resume that you could decide to work anywhere and make several times more. Instead you are there fighting to make a better future for the city and region.

I like being a small part of that. God has given us the same mission. I am blessed.

I'm glad God is so great that he can give me forgiveness and protection and that he will accept even my prayers.

With that said, i thank Him for friends and I pray that he gives us clarity and good judgment and that we are built up by those around us. And that we are protected from those who seek to tear us down.

Bill,

I woke up in the middle is the night and began to think about the blessings of the session from the Indiana General Assembly and immediately felt like one of the nine lepers that Jesus healed and refused to say "thank you." Words can not express my thanks for your leadership and advocacy and the grief you take for us. Every session you secure your spot in heaven for practicing God's tenets in a place that can be ungodly. God bless you. Karen
